

Running an Effective Hybrid PMO

Overview

As agile delivery methods gain popularity at Portfolio, Program and Project Team levels in all sizes of organisations, the relevance of a traditional PMO has been called into question. However, consider the fundamental role of a PMO: to protect the investments that an organisation makes in strategic initiatives and projects to ensure the best possible value/outcomes are achieved. This is done via a series of frameworks and controls that provide appropriate rigour for the delivery method applied and ultimately provide input into key decision-making by executives.

Most organisations use a blend of Predictive (e.g. Waterfall) and Agile (e.g. Scrum, SAFe®) approaches to deliver initiatives. Today's PMO must therefore be able to support a range of delivery approaches and will need to strike the right balance between having a clear governance structure and oversight, and allowing teams the flexibility to innovate, with a consistency of language.

Objectives

Couse duration: 2 days

This course aims to:

- Provide a practical guide for PMO Practitioners who are introducing agile to the delivery environment, or those wanting to uplift delivery outcomes in a Hybrid Delivery Environment (that supports both predictive and agile delivery teams).
- Outline a number of changes that PMOs will need to make when moving to a hybrid environment, along with a series of techniques and approaches that can be applied to achieve improvements both in the PMO and in the delivery community.

This course will enable participants to:

- Identify the critical success factors in establishing an effective Hybrid PMO
- Implement practices that allow the organisation to effectively prioritise and manage a Hybrid portfolio
- Establish processes and practices that ensure the right level of accountability and governance is applied throughout projects
- Establish appropriate measures for each project to enable executives to make informed, data-driven decisions
- Provide a consistent reporting framework to provide real-time visibility into performance, financials, and investments
- Explore common challenges encountered when running a Hybrid PMO
- The course focuses on organisations that operate a Hybrid Delivery environment and assumes prior PMO knowledge.

The course does not provide details on how to setup/run a traditional PMO or how to do agile. Rather, the course offers a practical guide that can be used to achieve PMO and delivery-based improvements within your organisation.

Course delivery

- Materials: A comprehensive participant workbook is provided.

Why learn with PM-Partners?

Because we turn your career goals into reality.

Poor project skills are consistently quoted as a key reason for project failure. To be successful in project delivery, it's critical to invest in yourself and the capabilities of your team. This means setting clear goals and making a commitment to continuous improvement.

Certification and training is a vital part of this journey. But you need to know which foot to put forward, and when, to ensure you're heading in the right direction. That's where our expert guidance and support comes in.

Tell us where you want to go

At PM-Partners we start every conversation with the question, 'Where are you trying to go?' We then apply our expertise to show you exactly 'how' to get there.

We believe that having the relevant skills and methodologies is critical to delivery success, and ultimately career success. Depending on your aims, our team of professional development consultants will work closely with you to create a development pathway, or team training program, that aligns with your goals.

Helping to develop professional capabilities for 25 years

Our accredited programs provide certification and development across a range of globally recognised project management and delivery streams.

Each year, our expert facilitators train and certify more than 12,000 people throughout Australia, New Zealand and South-East Asia to best practice standards. All highly qualified practitioners in their field, they draw from real-life scenarios and their own experience to add real value for individuals, teams and organisations.
