Optimise delivery with PM-Partners

PM-Partners offers individual and organisation-wide capability uplift and development, alongside advisory and coaching services, to help you, your teams, and your organisation deliver change faster and with less risk.

Our industry-leading education programs provide certification and development across a range of globally recognised project management and delivery streams. Our expert trainers are highly-qualified practitioners and draw from real-life scenarios to add context and valuable lessons for participants. Committed to life-long learning, they are continuously analysing and adapting to evolving industry thinking to deliver relevant content, aligned with global best practices.

We provide capability development in the following three ways:

1. Public Training

For managers looking to upskill their teams and stretch their training budget, PM-Partners' public training courses are an affordable solution. You can choose from any of the 80+ timetabled courses in our public training catalogue and benefit from volume-based discounts, calculated at time of booking.

All of our courses focus on delivering up-to-date, best practice thinking, while providing tools, resources and knowledge that attendees can take back to the workplace. Our public training rooms in Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane and Perth also utilise the latest in audio-visual technology to offer a choice of virtual, in-person and hybrid delivery modes.

Whatever your chosen location or delivery format, participants will join like-minded professionals in an interactive, classroom environment. This ensures an engaging, hands-on learning experience for everyone, no matter where they are. Visit our website to search our list of scheduled course dates and book direct, or contact our professional development team online, or by calling 1300 70 13 14.

2. In-house Training

Our in-house training provides a bespoke learning experience for teams of any size. Our expert facilitator will tailor the course content to your workplace environment and the group's knowledge, incorporating industry examples and case studies to put newfound knowledge into practice. This approach fast-tracks learning and equips participants with relevant tools and skills they can immediately apply to their active projects.

Courses are run at your office or one of our state-of-the-art training centres in Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane or Perth, with in-person and/or virtual delivery options depending on location and preference. Training modules can also be adapted, such as running over half-days, to accommodate different schedules and minimise workflow disruptions.

For more information and to discuss how we can develop an in-house program for your team, contact our professional development consultants online, or call 1300 14 14 70.

Customised training solutions

At PM-Partners, we understand that no two organisations are the same. Whether you're grappling with unique industry challenges, managing teams across time zones, or adapting to hybrid work models, your training needs are as distinctive as your business. That's why, alongside our structured certification courses, we offer the flexibility to customise many of our training solutions.

If our off-the-shelf courses don't fully meet your requirements, we're here to bridge the gap. This ensures your investment in professional development directly supports your goals and equips your team with the skills they need to excel.

Our flexible approach allows us to customise content, delivery formats, and schedules to suit your unique requirements - empowering your team to thrive in today's dynamic business environment.

The PM-Partners team worked with us side-by-side to understand what we wanted from our learning outcomes.
